Community Meeting On LA's Business Taxes

Your input is needed to make sure that tax relief is on its way for the city's business community. Please be sure to attend one of the following meetings to learn more about a new proposal to make our city more business friendly:

Tues. March 9,

5:30-7 p.m., Westchester
7166 W. Manchester Blvd.
Council District 11 Community Room

Wed. March 10

8:30-10 a.m., Downtown LA
350 S. Bixel Street
LA Area Chamber of Commerce

5-6:30 p.m., Van Nuys
6262 Van Nuys Blvd.
Marvin Braude Constituent Service Center

Thurs. March 11

3-4:30 p.m., South LA
3980 S. Menlo Avenue
Exposition Park Intergenerational Community Center

5:30-7 p.m., San Pedro
560 N. Western Ave.
Peck Park Community Room

At each of these meetings, the City's Business Tax Advisory Committee (BTAC) will present its plan for business tax reform and ask for your feedback before it formally recommends a proposal to the City Council. To ensure that all alternatives have been considered, your input is needed. If you cannot attend any of these meetings, you are encouraged to submit your views in writing to BTAC by faxing 213.978.1549, attention Jim Hickey before March 19. A copy of BTAC's proposals for community meetings can be obtained at <http://www.lacity.org/finance>.
